JAIL FOR DRUNKEN HUSBAND.

Court Out of Patience with John Martin, Puts Him Where He Won't Annoy Sick Wife.

Tuesday morning John Martin was arraigned before Judge W. A. Arnold in the police court. Martin was arrested for intoxication Monday by Chief E. H. Richmond at the request of his wife.

He pleaded guilty to being drunk and abusive. Chief Richmond told the court that Martin's wife is in a delicate condition and could not appear in court against her husband. She did not want him to return home unless he could quit drinking, but if he would do that and behave himself at home, she was willing to have him at home and even support him, if necessary, but she could not stand his language when he was on one of his "sprees."

Judge Arnold informed Martin that he had been placed upon probation twice and had violated the terms of those probation on each occasion. He had also taken the pledge and broken it. I appeared as though Martin did not desire to do anything for himself. The court imposed a sentence of thirty days in the county jail at Brooklyn.

RINGWORM

An Easy and Very Successful Treatment.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.

You know what ringworm looks like—starting as a little circular patch of tiny pimples, which dry up into scales and are followed by another crop on the outer edge, thus enlarging the ring all the time.

It may be caught from other children, and from dogs and cats. Tincture of iodine is the old remedy, but we have a better one now—Saxo Salve, our new skin remedy.

Apply Saxo Salve a few times (as directed by the book in the box) and the ringworm vanishes. Saxo Salve so saturates the skin with its powerful, yet soothing ingredients, that the ringworm parasites are destroyed.

Of course, Saxo Salve has many other uses. All kinds of skin eruptions, and disorders, eczema, barber's itch and tetter yield to Saxo Salve. It is a wonderful remedy and we guarantee it most positively. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Engler, Norwich, Conn.
